Dear Sir/Madam,

Town & Country Planning Act 1990 (as amended)
Town & Country Planning (Development Management Procedure) (England) Order 2015 - Article 39

Application No: R/66/22/CLP
Site Address: West end of Knightscroft Avenue Rustington
Description of works: Lawful development certificate for proposed new electronically operated access gate.

Thank you for your internet representation made on 2nd May 2022 which has been recorded as an objection with the comments as follows:

OWPC47188

It is not clear who would be the lawful beneficial owner of this certificate were it to be granted. The applicant is shown as Knightscroft Avenue Freeholders Association, not in itself a legal entity. Can any development be lawful if the applicant and/or beneficial owner is not itself a legal entity ?. Who would be liable for ensuring compliance with any subsequent Enforcement Notice should there be a significant diversion from the submitted plans or breach of any conditions attached to the certificate ?.

Your views as made above will be considered before the application is determined.

Please be aware that Planning Services operate an 'open file' policy and will publish your comments including your name and address on the website. Please make sure that you have only provided information that you are happy will be published in this way. If you have supplied information belonging to a third party, you must make sure you have their permission to do so. If you do not wish your comments to appear on the website or on the file you will need to confirm this by emailing to planning@arun.gov.uk and I will arrange for it to be destroyed although this means that the content will then be disregarded.

The majority of applications are determined under delegated powers by officers. Further information on the decision making process can be found on the website at :<https://www.arun.gov.uk/what-happens-next>.

Some applications will be determined by the Planning Committee, and I shall write and inform you of the date of the meeting and the procedures for public speaking if this is the case. However, if your representation has been received after the agenda for the meeting has been finalised and the notifications have been generated, you will not receive notification. In this case, you will need to track the progress of the application on the council's website <https://www.arun.gov.uk/planning-application-search>

Any comments that are received after the agenda has been finalised will be separately reported to the members of the Planning Committee.

Regardless of how the application is determined I will notify you of the decision.

Yours sincerely

Neil Crowther
Group Head of Planning
