Food Safety Officer Comment:-

Examined history of inspections, no previous food preparation activities noted during visits. Proposed kitchen is very small, which does not permit large scale catering for high risk groups. However, may be sufficient for low risk activities, not involving cooking of hot meals for young children. The applicant should consider providing sufficient capacity for the storage of children's packed lunches, if susceptible foods are included. Any contraventions of this nature will be dealt with under food safety legislation.

No comments or objections to proposals in respect noise/pollution.
