Dear Sir/Madam,

Town & Country Planning Act 1990 (as amended)
Town and Country Planning (Development Management Procedure) (England) Order 2015

Application No: R/84/26/PL
Site Address: Ground Floor 55-57 Sea Lane Rustington BN16 2RQ
Description of works: New commercial kitchen extractor installed on rear facade of outbuilding, alterations to existing windows and doors at rear ground floor level and the erection of a covered walkway structure in rear garden. This application is in CIL Zone 4 and is Zero Rated as other development.

Thank you for your internet representation made on 12th July 2026 which has been recorded as an objection with the comments as follows:

it is totally unacceptable to vent the awful smell of commercial cooking onto a residential area. Also, it will encourage rats and other vermin. We already have a problem with seagull's and foxes; we just don't want any more problems. It's just another example of commerce impacting on residential living, if you want take away food open a shop on the high street where it belongs. Has any consideration been given to where customers would park while getting their food? they wouldn't think twice about parking in Cudlow Garden I'm sure, which is private parking

Your views as made above will be considered before the application is determined.
