Dear Sir/Madam

Thank you for your email regarding registering to speak at the Planning Committee on Wednesday 21 October 2026.

In line with our constitution, Part 8 – Codes & Protocols, Section 3 – Planning Protocol, Paragraphs 11.3 outlines that to register to speak you need to have made a written representation on the application and are then required to call 01903 737512, by 9am on the Monday before the meeting, so this would be Monday 19 October in this instance.

11.3 Any person who has made a written representation on an application and wishes to speak must register their request by 9.00 am on the Monday before the meeting, by phoning 01903 737512. It is the responsibility of the individual to check whether the application is to be considered by the Planning Committee [one should be able to register to be automatically notified when the agenda for the Committee is published].

Please therefore call the number above to register to speak, I have also included below paragraph 11.4 which outlines that once registered, those registered will have a 3-minute time limit in which to speak.

11.4 There is a time limit of 3 minutes for each speaker i.e., Parish Councils, objectors, applicants/agents, or supporters. Objectors & supporters include residents' groups, community groups or interest groups. A supporter must be an independent third party such as a local resident, not a relative of the applicant or the applicant themselves if their appointed agent is already speaking.

You can also find more information on the above via this link to the councils constitution PART 8 - CP - Section 3 Planning Protocol.pdf.

Kind Regards

Louise Jackson
