Hi Simon,

The applicant agrees to the suggested EoT.

There are three questions we still have:

1. What date would be the latest you need to receive formal (or informal) confirmation from the LLFA that they have no objection in order for us to make the August 26th Planning Committee?
2. In terms of the second point / response in my email below, given the LLFA are stating that they cannot agree this departure, is this something you are able to agree?
3. We are still trying to get to the bottom of the affordable housing mix. I contacted the housing officer while you were on leave as you suggested but his response conflicted with your advice – see attached. Are you able to advise on what we should be doing?

Thanks,

Jack Karagoz MRTPI

Dear Jack,

Thanks. I have requested a re-consultation with the LLFA (which would be on a 14-day basis) and also separately emailed them to ask about the meeting request.

Our current EoT expires on Friday. Can you agree a new one please, say until August 28th?

Kind Regards

Simon
