29th April 2019

Dear Mr Andrew Griffiths

Development:

T1 TPO Ash, Fraxinus excelsior present in the front garden remove of dead wood over 250mm. To prevent damage to people or property.

T2 Ash tree Fraxinus excelsior in the back garden close to the boundary with Pipers Cottage. Geographical Information System suggest it may also have a TPO although I cant find a TPO reference relating to it? In its current state I think it has little amenity value. Extensive damage at root buttress, possibly coursed when the wall was built and Large wounds from historic topping. I have recommended heavy reduction up to three meters to reduce change of failure at the base and allow the retention of the tree.

Location:

Fir Tree Cottage The Street Walberton
