Dear Brian

Thank you for your email, the plans are fine however the floor plans are measuring to 1:50 rather than 1:500, with your permission I can amend the scale for you.

Kind regards
Sian

Hello Sian, Thank you for your reply and request for further documents. The advisor on the Planning Desk told me to send the additional documents to your e-address . I did try to contact you, but your message box was full. Anyway, I hope the attached drawings give a better presentation of the project and that we can move on. Being just a householder my equipment is a bit limited, it just takes a bit longer

Regards Brian
