CONCLUSIONS

PRINCIPLE

The application site is located within the built up area boundary, where the principle of development is acceptable subject to accordance with the relevant development plan policies, as stated in SD SP2 of the Arun Local Plan. In this case, the key policies are deemed to be D DM1 and D DM4 of the Arun Local Plan. Additionally, HP13 of the Walberton Neighbourhood Development Plan.

Policy D DM1 sets out 13 design aspects of which applications should be assessed against. These include: Character, Appearance, Impact, Innovation, Adaptability, Crime Prevention, Trees, Public realm, Layout, Public Art, Density and Scale.

Policy D DM4 sets out criteria for which applications relating to extensions and alterations of existing buildings must be assessed against. They generally seek to minimise the impact of the proposal on the character of the host dwelling, its neighbours and the locality.

DESIGN AND VISUAL AMENITY

The proposed alterations, including the change of the roof design will be visible from the public realm. However, these are not considered to be harmful to the character and appearance of the host dwelling, or it's wider locality. This is due to the minor scale of the alterations, and the siting of the host dwelling allowing for a reduced impact on the street scene, or the wider locality of the area. Resultant of its modest scale, the proposed porch and rear extension are considered to appear subservient to, and well integrated with, the host dwelling.

The proposed rear dormer is considered to an acceptable addition to the host dwelling, this is due to its siting allow there to be no views of the dormer from the street scene. Additionally, due to its scale, and design, it is considered to appear subservient to the host dwelling, as it spans just over 3.45m past that of the already approved scheme on the rear roof slope of the host dwelling. It is also noted that included in the proposal is a small rear extension this is not considered to have any significant impact on neighbouring properties by way of overlooking overbearing or overshadowing as it fills a current gap.

The proposed development is considered to be in accordance with D DM1, D DM4(a) and (b) of the Arun Local Plan.

NEIGHBOURING VISUAL AMENITY

The proposed development, due to its siting and scale is not considered to result in any unacceptably harmful impact upon the residential amenities of nearby dwellings. This is due to the siting of the proposed development being sited an acceptable distance from neighbouring dwellings in order to prevent any significantly harmful overshadowing or overbearing impact on the occupiers of said dwellings. The proposed rear dormer is not considered to result in any significantly harmful overlooking of adjacent dwellings, due to the fact that the views from the dormer face East, and therefore any views of neighbouring dwellings would be oblique and indirect.

Therefore, the proposed development is considered to be in accordance with D DM1(3) and D DM4(c) of the Arun Local Plan.

SUMMARY

The proposed development is deemed to accord with relevant development plan policies and as such is recommended for approval subject to the following conditions.
