Dear Mr Easton,

I am responding to your email to Mr Tristram on his behalf.

The proposed storage building will be used for plants grown on site as well as for storage of equipment and materials. It will not be used for storage of crops imported for redistribution.

Yours sincerely,

Dear Mr Tristram,

I have received an enquiry from a local resident in relation to the above planning application. This enquiry related to the use of the proposed agricultural storage building and I would be grateful if you could please provide me with some clarification as to the use of the building.

Is it intended for the building to be used for the storage of plants/crops grown on site only or will plants/crops be imported from elsewhere before being redistributed. I look forward to hearing from you in relation to this matter.

Yours Sincerely,
David Easton
