Dear Mr Tristram,

I apologise for the delay in the determination of the above planning application. I am currently awaiting comments from WSCC Highways in relation to the proposed development. Once this have been received a recommendation report will be completed. Therefore, I would be grateful if you could provide written confirmation of your agreement to an extension of time until the 22nd December 2017. However, the recommendation report will be completed as soon as WSCC comments have been received.

Please do not hesitate to contact me should you wish to discuss this matter further.

Yours Sincerely,
David Easton
