

Nestling on the banks of Pagham Harbour Nature Reserve the 350 year old Crab & Lobster has recently been re-novated creating one of the most stunning hideaways on the South Coast.

With a comfortable blend of old and new the atmosphere is relaxed, informal, individual and just a short drive from Chichester and all that the city has to offer.

The focus of the bedrooms is comfort - all rooms just oze style, finished in beautiful pastel shades with furniture, fittings and fabrics to suit every eye. And fresh flowers to suit the mood!

The deluxe rooms have superb views over fields and sea with binoculars and a telescope for you to focus.

The restaurant successfully combines excellent service and presentation, stylish decor and friendly ambience with food of the highest quality.

The menu is sourced from local producers - Selsey fishermen, neighbouring dairy farmers and Sittlington beekeepers for honey at breakfast.

With an adventurous emphasis on fresh fish and of course crab and lobster! There are also traditional English and Mediterranean dishes to tempt the taste buds and thrill the palate.

The fabulous wine list has delightfully wordy descriptions, with 17 classes by the glass to help you choose - some you will know and many you've yet to discover.

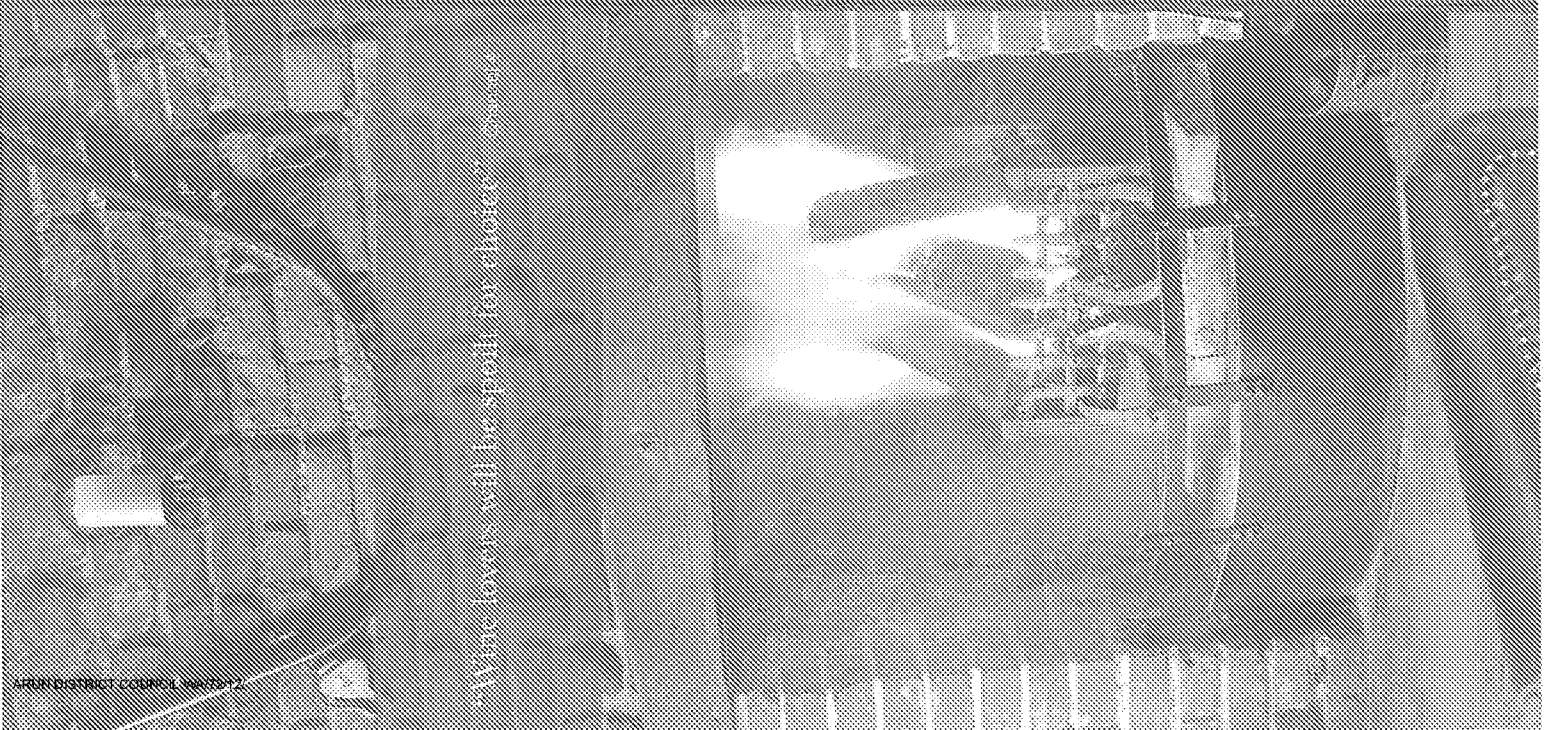

If you wish to dine al fresco the terrace and the beer garden have beautiful views of the countryside.

The Crab & Lobster is a gem of a place perfect for those seeking a romantic or relaxing escape.

We're proud of our traditional values at the Royal Oak

Our guests return time and again because we do what we say. They trust us to provide excellent food and an attention to detail that is second to none. This ensures a relaxing time whatever the occasion. We listen to our customers and make sure we get it right.

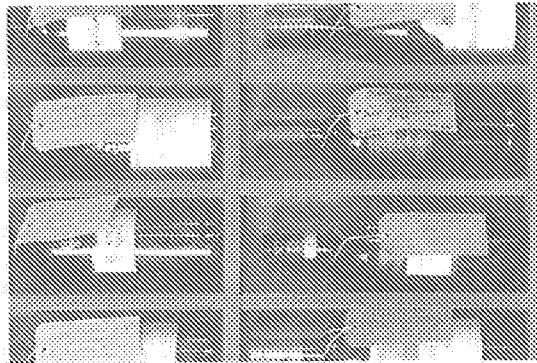

Your local, wherever you live

Our values, manners and courtesy are as pleasingly old-world as the pub's open fires, crooked timbers and bare brick walls. Our approach to food, however, is bang up-to-date. We use only the finest ingredients, delivered fresh from Billingsgate, Smithfield and Covent Garden. Our dishes are honest, unpretentious, and cooked to order by people who really know what they're doing. Our small but well researched wine list will tempt most palates and we have many by the glass. And if what you fancy isn't on the menu, we'll do our best to make it for you.

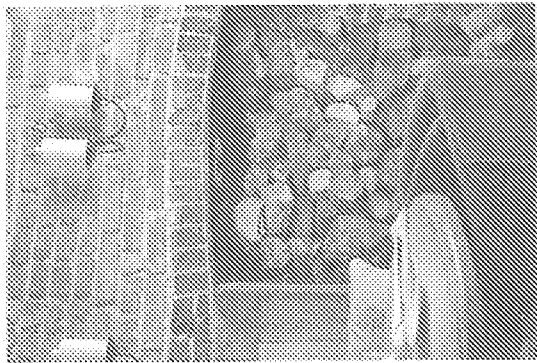

Simply put, we're a proper village pub. But our understated cosy atmosphere and glorious food and wine means we're a bit more than that, too. Whatever the occasion, whether it's a pint after a walk, an anniversary dinner or Sunday lunch with the family, children included, you're guaranteed a warm welcome – and discreet yet attentive service.
