EAST LAVANT

We're proud of our traditional values at the Royal Oak

Our guests return time and again because we do what we say. They trust us to provide excellent food and an attention to detail that is second to none. This ensures a relaxing time whatever the occasion. We listen to our customers and make sure we get it right.

Your local, wherever you live

Our values, manners and courtesy are as pleasingly old-world as the pub's open fires, crooked timbers and bare brick walls. Our approach to food, however, is bang up-to-date. We use only the finest ingredients, delivered fresh from Billingsgate, Smithfield and Covent Garden. Our dishes are honest, unpretentious, and cooked to order by people who really know what they're doing. Our small but well researched wine list will tempt most palettes and we have many by the glass. And if what you fancy isn't on the menu, we'll do our best to make it for you.

Simply put, we're a proper village pub. But our understated cosy atmosphere and glorious food and wine means we're a bit more than that, too. Whatever the occasion, whether it's a pint after a walk, an anniversary dinner or Sunday lunch with the family, children included, you're guaranteed a warm welcome – and discreet yet attentive service.
