Subject: Wandleys Lane development

FAO Michael Eastham,

Dear Sir,

I feel I must object in the strongest possible terms to the proposed development at Wandleys Lane, Walberton. There are numerous reasons for my objection the main one being that it completely contravenes the Neighbourhood Plan that everyone at the Council seems to have forgotten about. Various other points include: the desecration of beautiful ancient woodland in the area, an obvious greater flow of traffic through the village, an added threat to flooding, and the diminishing of the village environment which many of the inhabitants hold dear. For these reasons, and there are others, I respectfully ask you to decline the planning application.

Yours very sincerely, M. J. Cox (Mr)
