We strongly object to the above planning proposal. The site in Wandleys lane is contrary to the agreed neighbourhood plan and should, therefore, be thrown out entirely. This is a rural area with already far too many cars using narrow country lanes to access the main highways. Horses and bicycles as well as pedestrians use these lanes. We are already having to amalgamate a proposed huge influx of houses. The increased population will put more pressure on all the services which are not able to cope well now. It will change the villages for ever and make the south one large urban sprawl.

We urge you to see sense and listen to reason and reject this planning proposal.

Rosemary and John Sketchley,
Fontwell
