

I visited St Marys Vicarage at the request of the home owner. They have had complaints from the neighbours that the two birch trees in question had grown too large and stated to block light to their gardens. The trees had been reduced around 4 years ago. They have grown back to form quite dense canopies. Reductions planned to maintain trees at a manageable height and in keeping with the size of garden