Dear Mr Denton

With regard to the planning notices for 1 Fontwell Close please will you look at where the yellow notices were put. I understand from the neighbours notices were put up in Fontwell Close however Nos 1 to 6 are not in Fontwell Close but face on to what used to be the old A27 so neighbours did not know about the planning application. Also if one was put up outside No1 then it did not stay there long enough for my Aunt to see it.

Also, with regard to the planning application and also building control will the fire and rescue service be consulted? The fire burned for about 5 hours before it was extinguished. There were gas cannisters stored there which blew off the garage door. The reason why I am so concerned about this as I noticed the garage and store are been used as warehousing for goods in respect of the business and it was these goods that fuelled the fire.

Kind regards

Philippa Hind
