3 Description of Development

Application for permission in principle for the maximum erection of 2 No self build dwellings.

4 In pursuance of their powers under the above Act and related Orders and Regulations the Arun District Council, as Local Planning Authority hereby confirm that the proposed permission in principle development IS NOT PERMITTED for the reasons stated below.

- 1 The site lies in the designated countryside and is an unsuitable location for new residential development having regard to the spatial characteristics of the area in conflict with Arun Local Plan policy C SP1, Walberton Neighbourhood Development Plan policy HP1 and with reference to the weight to be afforded to Neighbourhood Plans by virtue of paragraph 14 of the NPPF.

INFORMATIVE: Statement pursuant to Article 35 of the Town and Country Planning (Development Management Procedure) (England) Order 2015 (as amended). The Local Planning Authority has acted positively and proactively in determining this application by identifying matters of concern with the proposal and determining the application within a timely manner, clearly setting out the reasons for refusal, allowing the Applicant the opportunity to consider the harm caused and whether or not it can be remedied by a revision to the proposal. The Local Planning Authority is willing to provide pre-application advice in respect of any future application for a revised development.

APPEALS TO THE SECRETARY OF STATE

If you are aggrieved by the decision of your local planning authority to refuse permission in principle for the proposed development, then you can appeal to the Secretary of State under section 78 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990.

If you want to appeal against your local planning authority's decision then you must do so within 6 months of the date of this notice.

Appeals must be made using a form which you can obtain online from www.gov.uk/government/organisations/planning-inspectorate or from The Planning Inspectorate at Temple Quay House, 2 The Square, Temple Quay, Bristol BS1 6PN

The Secretary of State can allow a longer period for making an appeal, but will not normally be prepared to use this power unless there are special circumstances which excuse the delay in making an appeal.

The Secretary of State need not consider an appeal if it seems to the Secretary of State that the local planning authority could not have granted permission in principle for the proposed development having regard to the statutory requirements, to the provisions of any development order and to any directions given under a development order.

In practice the Secretary of State does not refuse to consider appeals solely because the local planning authority based their decision on a direction given by the Secretary of State.
