Hi Simon,

Further to my earlier email, I have included a Drawing 26A to supersede 26 and also an amended house types brochure in case the previously submitted needs superseding.

Any further queries on this, please let me know. We have also today engaged with our Transport Consultant with regard to the PROW matters raised and will respond as soon as we can.

Kind regards

Michael Ruddock

Hi Simon,

Thank for picking this up, and apologies for the error.

It looks to me that Drawing 26 should be a Hampstead and not a Henley as that is what is stated on the contents. I have asked that the architect provides a revised copy.

Kind regards

Dear Michael,

We have now swapped the files over on our website. However, in doing this, we have found that drawings 24 and 26 are the same (both Henley elevations and no difference between the two – see attached) and we are also missing a drawing for the Hampstead elevations. Please supply this and also advise re which of the Henley drawings is incorrect.

Kind Regards
