Dear Sir/Madam,

Town & Country Planning Act 1990 (as amended)
Town & Country Planning (Development Management Procedure) (England) Order 2015

Application No: Y/13/21/HH
Site Address: Old Barn House Hoe Lane Flansham PO22 8NT
Description of works: Conversion of an existing detached carport with room above into an additional self contained dwelling ancillary to the main dwelling, removal of front window to main house & installation of bifolding doors.

Thank you for your internet representation made on 5th April 2021 which has been recorded as an objection with the comments as follows:

OWPC34914

I object to the conversion of the carport into further accommodation unless sufficient parking is found on the property for the potential increase in parking needs.

Not only is the carport being taken away thus affecting existing facilities but the new owner is advertising the main house as a 9 bedroom property suitable for wellness retreats, and is therefore expecting numerous guests. Hoe Lane is used for large agricultural machinery and is too narrow to have cars parked on the roadside.

Under normal family use this house has ample car parking but with the proposed increase in capacity and change of use, on site parking facilities should be offered before permission is given.
