Dear Simon,

I hope you are keeping well.

Further to the e-mail conversation you have been having with our Chair of Planning Councillor Mrs Vicky Newman, I write to confirm the Parish Council's position with regard to the above applications.

The Parish Council now wishes to withdraw the Parish Council's objection to application Y/141/21/PL (Temporary Sales Cabin & associated landscaping…..).

With respect to application Y/142/21/A (Various advertisements in various locations, Land East of Drove Lane, Yapton) , the Parish Council objects on the grounds that:

The concern is the level of signage fronting Main Road. By adding a further two 12 foot totems isn't going to remove or indeed lessen the clutter on the frontage. The Parish would strongly suggest the applicant simply has one totem and no more fronting the main road as per other house builders in Yapton. The Parish Council would request that the height restriction for the totem is no higher than 1.5m.

I hope that satisfies the Parish Council's latest agreed position with you. Do I need to enter any of these comments through the Planning Portal or will you update them?

Regards

Andrew
