Dear Sir/Madam,

Town & Country Planning Act 1990 (as amended)
Town & Country Planning (Development Management Procedure) (England) Order 2015

Application No: Y/150/21/HH
Site Address: 15 Kings Close Yapton BN18 0EX
Description of works: Detached single storey home office/garden building in rear garden.

Thank you for your internet representation made on 29th November 2021 which has been recorded as an objection with the comments as follows:

OWPC42227

My objection is based on the setting of a precedent on the new estate re extensions. On moving in we were made clear that request needed to be made as a clause had been inserted to what I believe was to ensure the site was not over developed. We were all aware of the space we had and as the estate is so new it is with surprise we see this request. I believe that the building is too large and not in keeping with the aesthetics of the estate and if this is agreed I believe others will follow and the precedent set could have an adverse effect of my outlook if other households follow, which I believe is a real possibility. A smaller building would ensure the outlooks of all remain as I believe they should.

Your views as made above will be considered before the application is determined.

Please be aware that Planning Services operate an 'open file' policy and will publish your comments including your name and address on the website. Please make sure that you have only provided information that you are happy will be published in this way. If you have supplied information belonging to a third party, you must make sure you have their permission to do so. If you do not wish your comments to appear on the website or on the file you will need to confirm this by emailing to planning@arun.gov.uk and I will arrange for it to be destroyed although this means that the content will then be disregarded.

The majority of applications are determined under delegated powers by officers. Further information on the decision making process can be found on the website at <https://www.arun.gov.uk/what-happens-next>.

Some applications will be determined by the Planning Committee, and I shall write and inform you of the date of the meeting and the procedures for public speaking if this is the case. However, if your representation has been received after the agenda for the meeting has been finalised and the notifications have been generated, you will not receive notification. In this case, you will need to track the progress of the application on the council's website <https://www.arun.gov.uk/planning-application-search>

Any comments that are received after the agenda has been finalised will be separately reported to the members of the Planning Committee.

Regardless of how the application is determined I will notify you of the decision.

In the event of a subsequent written representations appeal, against a refusal of planning permission on a householder application any representations made on the application will be automatically forwarded to the Secretary of State. Unlike all other types of appeal, there will be no further opportunity to comment at the appeal stage.

Yours sincerely

Neil Crowther
Group Head of Planning
