Dear Mrs Johnson,

Further to the email below, please find attached the updated drawings requested:

- P119 – plot numbers have been provided in the box
- P127A – the missing windows have been added to the plan
- P140A and P141A – plot numbers have been corrected and semi plan has been added for Drove CA
- P149 does not need to be updated but P150B has been updated to add the garages to the elevations.

Please note that the illustrative perspective views will be provided next week. Given that the perspective views do not form part of the validation requirements please can the application now be validated and the additional information then be provided as supplementary information?

Kind regards

Kathryn
