Morning Simon,

The black hashed lines simply delineate the areas that are our Barratt Housetypes with those outside being our David Wilson housetypes. This is principally for internal use.

Please find updated Phasing Plan showing the whole site. Please note that the dates are subject to change depending on external circumstances (i.e. snow like today!)

Many thanks,
Sean

Hi Sea,

I will review with Claire as to whether we can agree it. However, can you advise what the black hashed lines are on the phasing plan and why not all areas have a date on them.

Simon.
