Simon

Thank you for the email.

I understand from our client a section of wall has been temporarily removed, which I expect was to enable safe working and construction vehicle access. The wall will be reinstated in due course.

Best regards

Ian

Subject: Site Access Works at Bonhams

Dear Ian,

We have received concerns from local residents regarding the extent of flint wall that has been removed from the site (see photo). I have compared this to the approved landscape plan and it appears to me that a greater extent of wall has been removed than proposed on the plans but I have not been able to take measurements to compare. Please can you advise.

Kind Regards
