Hi Breezie,

Please find attached revised drawings for your review.

I have crossed referenced all openings and edges and insure they all align.

Kind regards,
Winston

Dear Winston,

Thank you for providing this. Unfortunately there are still a few minor discrepancies between drawings. Please see below and the attached:

- Proposed ground floor plans do not show supporting columns of balcony area
- Proposed first floor plans: the windows of the ensuite do not align with the NW elevation.
- The roof plan and first floor plan area labelled 'vaulted ceiling' do not align with the height of the porch shown on the SE elevation
- NE elevation does not show the smaller dormer windows.
- The site plan measurements do not scale as labelled. There should not be discrepancies between measurements of 50-100cm or more.

Please could you amend the above so the application can proceed to be validated.

Kind regards,

Breezie Allwright
