Dear Iqraa

The plan measured exactly when I photocopied it and the A0 version is a standard recognised way of submitting plans.

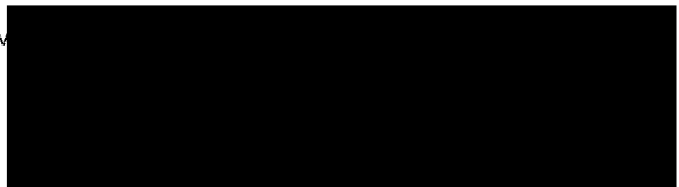

I will ask the applicant to add a note to the A) plan saying that it is 1:1250 when at A4 size.

The reality is that the larger scale sent in is far superior for the officers and covers the area that a 1:1250 plan would. I have never seen an application rejected for this reason.

Liz

Good morning,

The plans are all measured electronically with the paper size submitted.

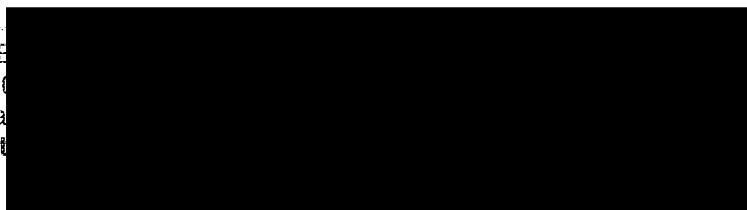

Unfortunately, the scale bar on this does not measure to scale, I have attached a screenshot below. Please review and amend accordingly.

Kind Regards

Dear Iqraa

When a plan is 1:500 at A0, it is 1:1250 at A4 using any CAD system

I attach an A4 copy so you can see this.

Liz

Good afternoon,

Thank you for providing the revised plans.

Kind Regards

Ms Malik
