Dear Sir/Madam,

Town & Country Planning Act 1990 (as amended)
Town and Country Planning (Development Management Procedure) (England) Order 2015

Application No: Y/33/21/PL
Site Address: Plum Pudding Barn Hoe Lane Flansham PO22 8NS
Description of works: Conversion of existing barn to 1 No. residential dwelling with associated parking (resubmission following Y/137/20/PL). This site is in CIL Zone 3 & is CIL Liable as new dwelling.

Thank you for your internet representation made on 23rd April 2021 which has been recorded as support with the comments as follows:

OWPC35353

As a direct neighbour of the site to which this application relates, I offer my wholehearted support for the improvement this would bring to Hoe Lane.

Having viewed the proposed plans I can say that this change of use would bring balance to this area of the lane. Two existing properties that sit either side of the site in question were allowed permission to change use, one from an agricultural building to residential, the other a work shop barn to residential, owned by a Mr Taft who at the time of his application was a Parish Councillor. It would be fair to expect that same level of support provided to these previous applications by the planning authority to be granted without hesitation to this application. I would be concerned if this application were to be refused, I am sure I would not be the only member of this constituency to raise questions as to why this would be the case.

Your views as made above will be considered before the application is determined.

Please make sure that you have only provided information that you are happy will be published in this way. In this case, you will need to track the progress of the application on the council's website <https://www.arun.gov.uk/weekly-lists>

Any comments that are received after the agenda has been finalised will be separately reported to the members of the Development Control Committee.

Yours sincerely

Neil Crowther
