Dear Sir/Madam,

Town & Country Planning Act 1990 (as amended)
Town and Country Planning (Development Management Procedure) (England) Order 2015

Application No: Y/33/21/PL
Site Address: Plum Pudding Barn Hoe Lane Flansham PO22 8NS
Description of works: Conversion of existing barn to 1 No. residential dwelling with associated parking (resubmission following Y/137/20/PL). This site is in CIL Zone 3 & is CIL Liable as new dwelling.

Thank you for your internet representation made on 28th April 2021 which has been recorded as support with the comments as follows:

OWPC35528

I have no objections to planning permission being granted to the application as it would improve the outlook from our house which overlooks this site.

As regards additional housing being developed on this land or even our adjacent field this is highly unlikely to be allowed by Arun and the plans for the proposed swelling are totally in keeping with the surrounding properties.

I also believe that the private unmade track used by us and the other 4 households at the top end of Hoe Lane would be maintained in a better condition. The applicant currently uses this track several times a day and has the equipment to flatten potholes which are awful in the winter.

As regards extra traffic on this stretch of the lane, there would probably be less movements and cyclist plus walkers would not be any less safe than they are now - in fact cyclists currently speed down this and don't consider that vehicles may be using it!

Your views as made above will be considered before the application is determined.
