Simon,

In response to your phone call and e-mail, it is disappointing that we are being asked for yet another extension of time. This will be the 5th extension, the first extension being agreed back at the start of November and the last as recently as last Monday. There presumably is nothing further that you are waiting for before you can determine the application; assuming this is the case we respectfully ask that you proceed to produce and issue the decision as a priority.

As agent for the applicants, I can confirm that Pallant Homes reluctantly agree to a further extension of time for the Council to determine the application until the 9th February 2018.

Dear Robin,

Further to our conversation, I am sorry but I have not yet completed the report write-up. I have started it and am now solely concentrating on this report (excepting pre-planned meetings) but I would like to request a further extension of time until next Friday the 9th February. I am on leave this Monday but then will continue the report write up with a view to passing to my Team Leader by mid next week.

I look forward to hearing from you.

Thank you.

Kind Regards
