Subject: Email of objection to Proposed development on Yapton scrap metal yard

Good morning,

Please accept this email as a formal objection to the planned proposal at Yapton scrap metal yard.

Please advise the next actions that will be undertaken in this process.

Kind regards,

Adam

Dear Mr Saunders,

You can either (a) submit a letter to the planning office, (b) send an email of objection to planning@arun.gov.uk or (c) use our online facility - <http://www.arun.gov.uk/planning-application-comments>.

It is not the Council's policy to send letters out to neighbours. Instead, we post yellow site notices to alert neighbours to the development. You may call me on the number below if you wish to discuss this matter.

Kind Regards

Good evening Simon,

I hope you are well.

Myself and my wife own Maple Cottage adjacent to the plot in question for the proposed development of 6 2/3 bedroom dwellings.

I would like to formally object to the consent of this development, please can you let me know what the process is to action this.

I would also like to understand why we have not received any formal written correspondence to date considering the impact of such a development would have to our property?

Can we arrange a telephone call to discuss the matter further either tomorrow or Friday.

I look forward to your prompt reply on this matter.

Kind regards,

Adam Saunders

Maple Cottage.
