Dear Paul,

To the best of my knowledge all correspondence relevant to the consideration & determination of the application is on our website. If you have any reason to doubt this then you are able to submit a Freedom of Information Act Request.

Kind Regards

Simon

Further to my last and whilst you are there please can you also confirm whether or not all correspondence and emails relevant to the consideration and determination of this application (including any between you as the case officer and consultees and the applicant) are on the web file and if not can you arrange for these to be uploaded and confirm which ones were missing at today's date.

Thanks
