Hi Michael,

Thank you for this. As discussed over the phone these conditions don't seem entirely relevant to this consent and are a repetition of a number of conditions in the consent for the 100 dwelling development.

My thoughts are as follows:

1. Access to be complete prior to occupation – This condition causes an unnecessary overlap with the consent for the wider site. Furthermore the application does not include the approval of any dwellings so the condition may be difficult to enforce and may become complicated should it be decided that the temporary access is not required.
2. Car Parking Space – This condition is imposed on the approval for the wider site. Again, this application doesn't actually approve any dwellings or parking spaces so the condition could be considered as irrelevant.
3. Cycle Parking – As above.

4. Access Road – This application is for the temporary access only. Detailed drawings of the access have been submitted with the application, and have been listed within the draft conditions which you sent via email on 20th May. Details of roads and footways for the wider site have been dealt with via the conditions within the 100 unit outline and RM approvals.

I confirm that the suggested informatives are acceptable.

Kind regards,

Tilly

Hi Tilly,

Please see the consultation response (attached) from the Local Highway Authority to Y/48/21/PL.

Are you happy for the draft conditions in the response to be imposed on the planning permission?

Kind regards,

Michael
