Dear Michael,

Thank you for providing me with a colour version. This is much easier to read and enables me to say that I believe the first three points have been met.

Dear Claire / Michael,

I have been through the 11 points mentioned in Odyssey's email of 23rd below, which referenced an earlier email and discussion point email.

The latter eight points would all seem to have been addressed.

It is a bit difficult to discern, in black and white, the mark up of the sub-areas (as per the first three points) but as far as I can see, I believe this has been done. It would be handy to have a colour copy of the drawings though – I'm not sure if it has been supplied in B/W or it is our system that has saved it in that manner. It would be useful to have those particular drawing supplied separately in colour for later reference.
