Simon,

That is fine with myself and my client.

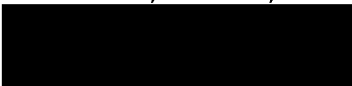

Can you just confirm with your solicitors that they are now happy with the S106 and the new red line etc? We want to get on with signing it now (which may take a week or two anyway).

Kind regards,

Matt Allsopp

Dear Matt,

I have been requested to increase the length of the agreed Extension of Time as it is unlikely that we will get the report out, whether the 106 is signed or not, by the 28th February. This week, I am doing Committee reports for our March meeting and next week, although I will have time, I am also aware that at some point I will be moving back from the office I have been in since January into our refurbished planning offices so it's likely that 1-2 days will be taken out of my control next week. Could we therefore agree a further extension until 30th March? However, obviously, it still my intention to complete the report as soon as the 106 is signed so it may be that the decision goes out sometime in early to mid-March even though a longer extension will be in place.

Kind Regards
