Date (Must be pre-application submission)

Details of the pre-application advice received

Further to the initial pre-app response letter Mr Davis advised in an email to the agent dated 21st May 2018 that given the self-evident changed circumstances of the consents on the land adjoining the site at Clays Farm without prejudice to consideration by planning committee, planning officers would find it difficult to argue against the merits of the site. Whilst a comprehensive development across all the sites was still the preference of ADC, the piecemeal consents on the adjoining land has changed that. Mr Davis stated that for reasons of site permeability it would be preferable to ensure a pedestrian link from the Clays Farm site but that a stand-alone access would be acceptable.
