Hi Paul,

The Holding Direction doesn't specify a period. My interpretation is that they may give a period once we have notified them of our decision (i.e. after the Committee Meeting).

Kind Regards

Dear Simon

Further to our previous correspondence regarding the above planning application, please see the attached Article 31 holding direction which I have been authorised to issue. I would be grateful if you could please confirm receipt.

I will of course keep in regular contact to check on the progress of the application, however I note it is currently scheduled for determination at planning committee on 5 June.
