What happens next:

Duly made checks

We will check your application to make sure it is complete and that any payment is correct. When we are happy we have the information to begin to assess the application and decide whether or not to grant it, we say it is 'duly made'.

If we need any more information from you before we can complete our checks the application is not duly made. We will let you know about this by email or letter and tell you what we need from you.

When we decide that your application is duly made we will confirm this by email or letter.

Determination

We will not begin work to determine your application until we are satisfied that it is duly made. For more complex applications we may need to ask you for further information before we can complete our determination of your application.

If you need to contact us

Your application has been allocated to Tom Lamboo who will be your main contact.
