I also write to request an extension of time. We require 2 working days between the end of the consultation date before the decision is issued to allow for representation to be uploaded online. Unfortunately the dates do not allow for this as it will run past its expiry. Please can we agree an extension until the 25th October for the decision to be issued.

Thank you
Amber

Dear Amber,

If you would like to make a visit to the property please can you let us know some time in advance. We understand a visit was requested previously, but unfortunately we were unable to get a response to you in time.

If you have already made a site visit then apologies, and many thanks for being able to arrange this.

With kind regards,

Jonathan Bertha
Architectural Assistant
