Dear Sirs

RE: Grant of Planning Permission Change of Use. Business,
Caravel,
Mr Hamley 16 Bilsham Court

We write with reference to the above named.

We are instructed by Mr Allright and Mrs Wenborn of 17 Bilsham Court.

We acted for these clients in Worthing Magistrates Court in respect of being in breach of noise abatement orders, to which they were found not guilty.

We are shocked and concerned as to why planning permission has been granted to allow Mr Hamley to continue with a business that you are aware has caused disruption and alarm to our clients.

We seek an explanation as to whether our clients' objections were considered and whether the application was put to a committee for consideration.

We also seek explanation as to why social housing is being allowed to be used for business purposes depriving a family in need of such housing when Mr Hamley is not a resident at the premises.

Your urgent reply is sought in this matter.

Yours faithfully,

Gerard Maye Legal Ltd
