Are there plans to remove the hedgerow along the old canal path? I have noticed this is suggested on a couple of documents and want to protest against any plans for this. Hedgerows are part of our heritage as well as providing essential habitats and safe routes for birds,bats (which are present), mammals and invertebrates. They cannot be simply relocated as was suggested in one document. And why move it as suggested to provide a better vista- i would imagine many people would be happier to look onto hedge and all its resident wildlife, rather than a view over to the road.
Also is there still a plan to put an access road and path through the old canal route, by canal cottages? What a shame if there is- this is part of the villages history and also regularly houses sheep - a nice addition to the village,helping to give a rural feel.
