Hi Daun,

Thank you for your email, however drainage details are not required to be submitted with the application for the following reasons:

1. Drainage is not a reserved matter;
2. Drainage is dealt with through Condition 11 of the outline planning permission. The condition does not require drainage details to be submitted prior to or even alongside the reserved matters application; and
3. An application to discharge Condition 11 will be submitted at a later date prior to the commencement of development.

Therefore, please can you validate the application from the date of submission?

Regards,

Rob Riding
