Hi Simon

I am sure it is not a problem. I have asked my clients and will get back to you with sign locations later in the week.

Regards

Liz

Dear Liz,

Please see below email, with reference to an objection we have received. Can you liaise with your client to discuss whether signage can be provided within the application site to notify drivers of the likelihood of cyclists crossing. If your client is agreement, can you provide a plan indicating the position of such signage and also an elevation plan of such sign/s?

I look forward to hearing from you.

Kind Regards
